FALL GALA | 2018

MasterVoices opens its 2018-2019 season with a multimedia interpretation of Israel in Egypt, Handel's timely oratorio of exile, displacement, and longing for home. As part of this one-of-a-kind choral event, we invite you to join us in honoring two organizations working tirelessly to ameliorate the suffering of today's refugees: the International Rescue Committee and Artolution. Conducted by our Tony Award®-winning Artistic Director Ted Sperling, the performance will feature vocal solos by current and former members of the Marcus Institute for Vocal Arts at Juilliard — including Mikaela Bennett, Jessica Niles, John Holiday, Andrew Stenson, Gregory Feldmann, and Erik Van Heyningen — as well as visual design by Syrian-Armenian artist Kevork Mourad. We will begin the evening with a cocktail reception and dinner, with a dessert reception to follow the performance.
