MASTEROICES FALL GALA | 2019

Of Thee I Sing at Carnegie in 2017

After the resounding success of their 1931 hit, Of Thee I Sing (performed by MasterVoices in 2017), the Gershwins re-teamed with librettists George S. Kaufman and Morrie Ryskind for this madcap and blisteringly dark sequel. Let 'Em Eat Cake picks up with the same motley crew, four years later — President Wintergreen has lost reelection, stages a military coup, fires the Supreme Court, and paints The White House blue. But never mind all that — Cake is a sparkling gem filled with wonderful Gershwin tunes, and it hasn't been heard in NYC since 1987! Tony Award® nominee Bryce Pinkham returns as our President Wintergreen, along with Kevin Chamberlin (The Addams Family), Chuck Cooper (The Life) and some new faces, too — Mikaela Bennett (The Golden Apple) as Wintergreen's wife Mary and Christopher Fitzgerald (Waitress) as his campaign nemesis.
