Join us as we bring the sounds of summer to life!
Lush soundscapes and refreshing breezes, all against the sparkling backdrop of the NYC skyline, presented as part of Waterline Square Park's free Summer Stage program.

We'll transport you across the musical spectrum, from the fairy forests of Felix Mendelssohn to the porch swings of Samuel Barber and the showtunes of Sondheim, Loesser, and Schwartz. The versatile voices of Shereen Pimentel (The Lion King, West Side Story) and Tariq Al-Sabir (Parable of the Sower, Atlas) will guide you through summers in Renaissance Italy and 19th-century France...

But if NYC summers are more your thing, we've got you covered with the poetry of Langston Hughes (set to music by Ricky Ian Gordon), and the world premiere of SUMMERS ARE GROWING LONGER, written exclusively for MasterVoices by the boundless Mr. Al-Sabir, whose recent commissions include The Shed, Harlem Stage, and the New York Festival of Song.
