

Blind Injustice Soprano Notes
December 16, 2024

Semi-chorus rehearsal schedule and audition info will be distributed shortly.

We've been learning this in bits and pieces, which is okay for learning notes, but less than ideal for story-telling. PLEASE use all the practice materials that are on the website! Listen to it over the break. Become familiar with the work as a listener and it'll make you a better singer. We are active participants in telling this powerful story, and we need to ACT! (This is true of entire chorus, not just semi-chorus.)

Music Notes

P 162—Little lift between the “blind”s, for intelligibility.

P 164—cut off first note an eighth note early

P 167, Bar 40 should be sung sharply, almost violently

Happy Holidays all!
