

Celebrating the achievements and life events of the MasterVoices singing members!

Upcoming Events

David Fleiss (bass) will be singing with the Dalton Chorale in their performance of A Winter Concert featuring J. S. Bach's Christmas Oratorio (part 1), madrigals by Lusitano and Strozzi, and Purcell's Come Ye Sons of Art on December 9 at The Church of the Holy Trinity on East 88th. The concert features lots of brass and other instrumentalists, and a free wine reception immediately afterwards! More info and tickets here.

Marcy Boyle (alto) is proud to share that her former Side by Side mentee Miastasha Gonzalez Colon is appearing in Amhal and the Night Visitors at Lincoln Center. Bonnie Panson (SSoS stage manager) is stage managing! Limited engagement Dec 16 - Jan 4. More info and tickets here.

David Waggett (bass) will be singing with the Masterwork Chrous in their performances of Handel's Messiah on December 21 in Madison NJ, and December 23 at Carnegie Hall. More info and tickets here.

Uji (soprano) is a relatively new member of an activist choir known as Reverend Billy and The Stop Shopping Choir. For the last 12 years, the group has performed at Joe's Pub every December. This year they are performing at the Quaker Meeting House in the East Village on December 7, 14, and 21. The Stop Shopping Choir makes their own original music which Uji describes as "high voltage!" No door fees and drink minimums. All are welcome! More info here.

Uji is also hosting Open Studio Sample Sales in December. The dates are 6th, 12th, 13th, 19th, 20th. Email ujiiiiju@gmail.com for more info.

Candice Corbin (soprano) will be singing back-up vocals with the 8-Bit Big Band on Dec 27th at Sony Hall at 7pm and 9:30pm. The group is a Grammy award winning 30-65 member Jazz/Pops orchestra formed to celebrate and realize some of the best musical themes written from various video games! Candice shares "It's a really fun night!" Tickets available here.

Congratulations!

Eileen Richter (alto) is beyond thrilled to share that in early November she got actual billing at Carnegie Hall! She auditioned and was chosen as part of the Oratorio Society of New York's very small semi-chorus for John Corigliano's Fern Hill and then went on to sing Mozart's Mass in C Minor. Eileen says it was "a satisfying 2nd time for me - as the first time was my very first year with Mastervoices at the Verbier Music Festival." Eileen will also be singing in the Messiah with OSNY on December 22nd at Carnegie Hall!

Seeking a Publicist

Judith Oringer (soprano) is working with pianist Bob Dawson to launch his soon-to-be published book, Tux Tales: 52 AnecNotes of a NYC Pianist... and a Remarkable Discovery. Along with vignettes of Dawson's amazing encounters playing for Thornton Wilder, Fareed Zakaria, Françoise Gilot, Christo & Jeanne-Claude, William Buckley and others, Dawson shows the connection between music and the sciences. Due to his discoveries, Dawson has received letters of accreditation from three NASA scientists. Judith is seeking a publicist well-versed in social media marketing who can communicate this fun, informative book! Contact Judith at judithbooks3@aol.com or on 646 552 6452.

Movie Alert: The Choral

Directed by Nicholas Hytner, written by Alan Bennett, and starring Ralph Fiennes, this new movie set during the First World War follows the Choral Society in Ramsden, Yorkshire, as the ambitious committee determines to press ahead to recruit local young males and a new chorus master. As conscription papers start to arrive, the whole community discovers that the best response to the chaos that is laying waste to their lives is to make music together. In cinemas December 25!
